Scope

This FEMSA Corporate Policy is of mandatory observance and compliance for FEMSA and all of its Employees.

Policy

At FEMSA we carry out responsible business practices seeking to generate the social, environmental, and economic conditions necessary to operate today and grow over time in harmony with the environment, and our stakeholders.

1. We manage, identify, and periodically update material issues for FEMSA's sustainability, guided by our commitment to our people, the planet, and the communities in which we operate, including those that represent risks or opportunities for the achievement of the business objectives in the short, medium, or long term, and the alignment of these with the expectations that our stakeholders have of our business.
2. We integrate into the plan, strategy and business model of FEMSA a sustainability strategy focused on our people, planet, and community, based on our FEMSA Code of Ethics.
3. We evaluate priority business processes, identify risks and opportunities, and promote the integration of best sustainability practices in each of them.

Report

Any non-compliance or possible risk of non-compliance with legal provisions, the Code of Ethics and other FEMSA Internal Guidelines must be reported to the FEMSA Ethics Line, the Ethics Committee or the Human Resources area of the Business Unit.

Corrective measures

The non-compliance of this Corporate Standard will be subject to corrective measures. The severity of such measure will depend on the seriousness and impact of the non-compliance, which may include the Employee dismissal, regardless of filing a complaint with the competent authorities, as the case may be, in accordance with the applicable legislation.

When there is any doubt about the existence of a breach of this Corporate Standard, the corresponding Ethics Committee will proceed to assess whether the breach materialized and, where appropriate, to validate and assess the seriousness and impact of the breach in accordance with the available evidence before the corrective measure is imposed to the potential offender.

With the organizational support that is deemed necessary, the corrective measures will be determined and applied in accordance with the procedure established by the FEMSA Ethics Committee.

If a breach occurs or is presumed to occur, it must be reported immediately through the FEMSA Ethics Line.
